

Clearwave Corporation Chairman William G. Nordmark, III is Named Rotary Club of Atlanta President

ATLANTA – July 24, 2009 - Clearwave Chairman, William G. Nordmark, III, has been named President of the Rotary Club of Atlanta. The Rotary Club of Atlanta was founded in 1913 and has nearly 500 members, making it one of the largest Rotary Clubs. With a distinguished list of members, the Rotary Club of Atlanta supports Rotary International Foundation's effort to eradicate polio as well as various causes the members and Rotary support.

For the last 18 years, Mr. Nordmark has served as President and CEO of The Nordmark Consulting Group, which assists companies to form strategic alliances in order to meet and exceed specific business goals. In addition to serving as Clearwave's chairman, Mr. Nordmark is a member of the 2009 Board of Directors for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and sits on the Advisory Board of the Bank of North Georgia.

"I have chosen to give my community involvement time to the Rotary Club of Atlanta because of its commitment to eradicating polio. This is a very important cause to me because I have been a polio survivor since I was 2 ½ years old," said Mr. Nordmark.

Rotary is a worldwide organization of business and professional leaders that provides humanitarian service, encourages high ethical standards in all vocations, and helps build goodwill and peace in the world. Approximately 1.2 million Rotarians belong to more than 32,000 clubs in more than 200 countries and geographical areas.
