

Clearwave Corporation Appoints Mr. Eric Anderson Chief Operating Officer

ATLANTA – July 1, 2010 - Clearwave Corporation (www.clearwaveinc.com) has appointed Mr. Eric Anderson to serve as the company's Chief Operating Officer. In this role, Eric is responsible for the operations of the company, including software development, product installation and integration, EDI, technical infrastructure, quality assurance and customer satisfaction.

Eric has more than 15 years of technology and consulting experience having worked with large, global companies to design, develop, implement, and manage large scale systems. Prior to joining Clearwave, Eric co-founded Bluemont Associates LLC, a technology consulting organization that provided services to some of the largest Fortune 500 companies.

“Clearwave’s solution will revolutionize the health care industry and drive substantial value for patients, providers and payers. We foresee tremendous growth over the next year and we will ensure that our growth is carefully managed so that we continue to develop an industry leading solution and uphold the highest standards of customer service,” said Eric Anderson. “Clearwave has an outstanding team of focused professionals. It is my honor to join this team and serve under the leadership and guidance of Mr. Gerard White and Mr. Bill Nordmark.”

Eric earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Shepherd University, where he graduated summa cum laude and a Master of Business Administration from VA Tech, where he graduated magna cum laude. In 2008, Eric was appointed to the Board of Trustees at Randolph-Macon Academy, the oldest co-ed Air Force ROTC boarding school in America.
